MAN KILLED, POLICEMAN SHOT, NEGRO MURDERER ESCAPES, OFFER REWARD

John Victor Dambrino Is Dead, Chief of Police Mark Oliver Seriously Wounded as Result of Shots Fired By Negro Tuesday at City Jail

John Dambrino, 32 years old, of Kiln, Miss., was killed and Chief of Police Mark Oliver of Bay St. Louis was wounded with two bullet wounds Tuesday when Silas Richardson, 30-year-old Logtown and Bay negro, shot his way to freedom at the city jail where he was held as a suspect in an automobile theft. The negro escaped after the shooting, going around the northwest corner of the jail, running through the park behind the jail, reaching the home of his parents, Ben Williams and wife, where he changed his clothes except his shoes, and made his way to the three additional rounds of ammunition for it, and escaped to the woods.

Searching parties including several hundred men and officers from the entire Coast section, scoured the woods and roads and trains from Bay St. Louis, east, west and northward through Tuesday night, Wednesday and Wednesday night, without finding the negro.

Story of the Shooting
The clearest story leading up to the shooting and of the shooting itself that could be obtained from questioning many connected with the case is given below:

The negro was suspected of having stolen a Willys-Knight sedan about 6:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, being longing to J. H. Duncan of New Orleans who is spending the summer at Henderson Point and who commutes daily to the city, leaving his car in the hands of a driver, Eugene Garage, on Hancock and Union streets. Police were notified and Mr. Oliver arrested the negro near the traffic bridge on Front street and took him to Monty's Garage. He was not in the car. When questioned as to the car the negro denied knowing anything about it. It was later found back of the college baseball park. The negro had formerly worked for the garage on the greasing and washing rack but had been fired about three weeks ago, and had been suspected of taking this same car once before. Claude Monti told officer Oliver to lock the negro up, which he did, taking him to the city jail.

About an hour and a half later officer Oliver went to the jail to search the negro for the keys he was longing to the auto. He was accompanied by Mr. Dambrino who formerly worked for the Monti Garage but who had not been regularly connected with the garage for several months, but who was there Tuesday working on his own car, putting on a fender. He is said to have gone to the jail to see what was going on.

Two boys, Lincol Vicerly, 15, and Johnny Dameran, 15, were sitting in the hallway of the jail talking to the negro who was in a cell with the officer and Dambrino arrived. As officer Oliver opened the cell door he told the negro he had come to search him. The negro took a pen knife out of his pocket and gave it to the officer, saying that was all he had. Officer Oliver started to search the negro and the negro resisted the search backing up going into the cell with Oliver following. The boys, one of whom was lying on the floor and the other hiding behind a stool heard shots from the cell and saw Mr. Oliver backing out drawing his gun. They saw the negro shoot Mr. Dambrino who was going to the aid of Mr. Oliver and saw him fall. Then Mr. Oliver shot at the fleeing negro, missing him. Mr. Oliver stated that as he approached the negro in his cell the negro drew his gun and shot. Two shots entered Mr. Oliver, one in the scalp, and the other entered the upper vertebrae of the spine. The one shot at Mr. Dambrino entered his forehead over the left eye, killing him as he fell. One of the boys reported hearing him say, "I'm shot; I'm dying."

Vicerly assisted Mr. Oliver outside and up the stairs to the city agent, Mayor Chas. Traub, Sr., and Commissioners H. F. Egloff and S. J. Lader, were upstairs in the city hall working on the city assessment and reported hearing a commotion down stairs and called out to the supposed boys playing. "Keep quiet."

As Mr. Oliver and the boy got partially upstairs Harry Witter who was passing in his car and who heard the shots and saw the negro fleeing, reached Mr. Oliver as he fell and the Mayor and commissioners. He was taken in Witter's car to the King's Daughters Emergency Hospital on Math street where Dr. Alvin B. Smith gave him first aid, binding his wound, then he was taken to the King's Daughters Hospital, Gulfport, where he is still under treatment.

CITY IMPROVEMENT CONTEST IS CALLED OFF, IS ANNOUNCED

An Insufficient Number of Entries Caused The Contest to Be Dissolved

Because there was not sufficient entries in the city under the rules of the proportionate improvement contest which was launched under the direction of J. N. Wisner, director of public relations for the city of Bay St. Louis, and for which the Hancock County Bank had offered $500 in prizes, the contest has been called off, Mr. Wisner announces. The final date for entry into the contest was August 1st and at that time the requisite number of entries had not been made by the property owners and residents, hence the contest had to be dissolved. Mr. Wisner said: "My part in the contest as director of public relations was simply to abide by the rules, also secure all the publicity 'free' that was possible for the Bay area and this I have done." He calls attention to the city, county, state, neighboring state and national publicity the contest gave the city and section, pointing to the articles which have appeared in various newspapers and magazines.

Mr. Wisner's letter to those entering the contest follows: "Allow me to thank you sincerely for having entered the contest for proportionate improvement and to express my regrets of there not being enough contestants to meet the requirements or really make it a contest."

"There is some good, however, from everything and Bay St. Louis certainly received a volume of national publicity over it that can hardly fail to entice or induce some northern visitors to visit here this coming Fall and Winter."

Plans For Circus and Report of Hospital Activities Are Leading Business

Thirty members of the Bay St. Louis Circle of King's Daughters and Sons met in a delightful luncheon get-together Monday at the Hotel Weston, the luncheon being followed by the regular monthly meeting of the organization. Tables for the luncheon were arranged in the sun-parlor and the business meeting was held in the lounge room of the hotel. Mrs. A. F. Fournier, local president and state vice-president, presiding.

This month a number of pieces of equipment have been added to the hospital making it more valuable for the use of the ill or injured patient. The members were made happy by the cooperation of the local physicians in making it a success as an emergency room.

HARRIS IS SPEAKER AT LEETOWN

Monthly Meeting Featured By Talks, Demonstrations, Plans For Next Month

"Any average farmer can increase his income $500 to $1,000 per year but he must do so by treating farming as a business and in order to do this must plan and figure to get the most possible out of his soil," H. I. Harris, agricultural agent for the Pearl River County Bank of Piquette, said Friday night at the regular monthly meeting of the Lee Town Community Club held at the Lee Town school building. In illustrating the importance of soil, Mr. Harris told the farmers the value of cover crops at this time naming the most popular cover crops for this section and explaining culture and fertilization necessary.

Mr. Harris complimented the community on its progressive spirit which made possible the type of meetings which are being held by the community organization and said: "Put into practice what you know, make plans and work toward them, plan now for next year's crop and prosper accordingly. Make plans to have a good living at home and then you will find you have some money besides; make your living and something else besides which can be sold," he said. The purpose or object of the community club should have is to increase the living capacity of each family or home in your community," Mr. Harris said.

A second speaker on the club program Friday night was Nannie-Mayes Crump of Gulfport, who gave a talk on "cooperation," illustrating her theme with story. Following her talk she gave three readings, two of a humorous nature and one in a more serious vein. Miss Crump accompanied by her mother and two friends, Misses Louise and Oliver Anderson of Gulfport had motored out to the meeting.

Miss Mayme O'Dom, county home demonstration agent, was present and gave a lemon jelly demonstration.

Health Report
The report of the health and sanitation committee of which Mrs. Willie Price Lee is chairman showed that the July goal in lateral drainage had been met and passed. For next month the goal was set for the erection in the community of two weevil proof cribs.

A second feature of the work for July was the clearing and landscaping of the rural park or playground which the club is preparing on the Roger Lee land just south of the school. About arrangements for a picnic were cleared and on Saturday a large number of the men of the community spent the day working on the grounds, doing much valuable clearing work. Seats and benches are to be constructed at the park within the near future. The entire community is enthused over the park and looks forward pleasurably toward creating here a very beautiful place.

Next Month's Program
Next month's program for the club includes aside from the health work a study of sweet potatoes with reference to grading, fertilization, cultivation, and choice of variety suited to this section, also a study of the diseases that attack this plant. Two buttermilk demonstrations and also a cheese demonstration will be given. A committee is to be appointed to begin arrangements for a community fair to be held in the fall.

The community as a whole plans to attend the county-wide picnic to be held at Waveland in September.

To Hold Reunion
It was decided by the community to hold a reunion of the Lee family at Lee rural park later in the fall. This family settled in this section a number of years ago and includes its family group many of the prominent people of the section and a reunion of this kind will bring together many persons from various sections.

The community discussed securing a piano for the club and other Rest president, appointed as a committee to look into this matter Gaston Lee, Miss Mittie Lee and Mrs. Willie Lee. The singing of the 4-H club girls in their attractive uniforms was a most pleasant part of the meeting. These girls assisted by members of the Woman's Home Demonstration Club served refreshments of lemonade and cake.

CAR COLLISION IS CAUSE OF TRIAL FOR RECKLESS DRIVING

Miss Herbert Is Released—Miss Praetorius Is Fined In Mayor's Court

A car collision last Thursday afternoon at about five o'clock between an auto driven by Miss Claude Herbert and owned by C. J. Cadis and a car driven by Miss Dorothy Praetorius was the cause of the arrest of both drivers charged with reckless driving, officer Mark Oliver making the arrest. The case was tried Friday before Mayor Chas. Traub, Sr., who took the case under advisement and announced his decision in which he found Miss Praetorius guilty of reckless driving and fined her $2.50, releasing Miss Herbert.

The collision occurred at the intersection of St. George street and Necaise avenue. The Cadis car, a Nash coach, which contained besides the driver, Mrs. C. J. Cadis and four-year-old son, Clifford, Jr., was traveling west on St. George street. The Praetorius car contained besides the driver Mrs. Praetorius, daughter, son and a young lady friend and was going north on Necaise avenue. The collision damaged both cars, the Cadis car having the front wheel, fender, and chassis damaged and the Praetorius car having the bumper and side damaged.

Little Clifford Cadis was cut and bruised about the face but not seriously. Miss Herbert suffered a bruised leg and hip which at first was not thought to be very painful but has been found to be rather bad.

None of the other occupants of the two cars were injured, it was said.

PLAY AT A. & G. SUNDAY AND MONDAY HAS REAL NOBILITY

Greta Garbo, Russian Artist, Leading Star In "The Mysterious Lady"

Poignant memories of the gay and colorful festivities that held full sway in Warsaw before the great Red tide of revolution swept away every vestige of aristocracy, came to the minds of the several hundred Russian refugees who participated in the cafe scenes of "The Mysterious Lady" at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio which Bay St. Louis movie patrons will soon be privileged to view.

Among the group of foreign players who appeared in the scenes for the new Greta Garbo picture were a prince and a princess, two generals, eight colonels and numerous other former holders of royal military rank and honors.

Prince Yucca Troubetskoi and Princess Natalie Golitzin were the members of Russian nobility who were seen among the groups of "atmosphere" players recruited by Fred Niblo, director for the scenes.

The cafe in which the scenes were taken was an exact duplicate of a favorite Warsaw rendezvous, where the Russian aristocracy formerly gathered for their merriest affairs and social gatherings. It was designed by Alexander Toluboff, former Russian engineer, who knew every nook and cranny so well he was able to prepare architectural sketches from memory.

Fittingly enough, Prince Troubetskoi was permitted to wear a uniform in keeping with his former rank. Ex-military officers also were given uniforms with appropriate insignia.

The picture romance which comes to the A. & G. theatre Sunday and Monday, is the tale of a beautiful Russian spy who is sent to trap a handsome Australian officer, possessor of important military secrets. He falls in love with her, and his disillusionment when he finds himself betrayed brings the story to a thrilling climax.

erlastingly on the job. He assumes nothing. He takes nothing for granted.Eugene Fly has had a training that equips him for the highest and best service in the lower house of congress that perhaps no other man in Mississippi has.
He has been a congressional secretary for more than fifteen years and he has assumed that his position meant work his chief did not have to dig up. He has shown that there has been nothing that the people back home wanted which he could do that he did not understand to perform. With a candor and a frankness that is commendable and unique, he has shown that he was still just Eugene Fly and that he really delighted to serve the folks back home.If chosen as the representative of the sixth district, he will serve this people faithfully and efficiently. He will serve them so intelligently and so satisfactorily that when he shall be ready to retire they will say,
"well done good and faithful servant."REWARD EFFICIENCY.Efficient government is necessary in the United States if our system of government is to establish itself.
Most of the people of Hancock county take it for granted that the American form of government has succeeded beyond mischance. In that assumption they are vastly in error.The federal republic, as we use it, is a baby government in age. Other peoples of the world watch its course in order to see its fruits. Apparently, it is full of good, because Americans enjoy great prosperity and liberty but, on the other hand, ask some, is this not due to the great resources of nature which abound in the United States?The fundamental principle upon which rests the American theory of government is that officers and officials will serve the people. That some of them earnestly strive to do this to the best of their ability is not doubted, but that others feather their nests, and look out for their friends, is also not to be doubted.The above observation does not apply to the federal government alone. It is a fact in Hancock county as well. When people see in this city and county that they have, in office, men who are faithful to their official trusts they should appreciate the fact. On the other hand, when they see a man holding public office, who disregards the rights of all except those who help him, they should be as equally emphatic in kicking him out.We make no attempt here to apply these observations to anybody, as this is the duty of the individual citizen.
He should exercise the privileges that go with his citizenship and do his part in keeping good men in office and bad men out of them.MISSISSIPPI FAIRS.Fair time is on us. That can be taken literally or figuratively. Mississippi fairs are growing. People are beginning to appreciate their importance. We have something worthwhile in Mississippi, and our biggest job is convincing our own people."We do not have to travel to distant states to see good fairs," states L. J. Folse, general manager of the Mississippi State Board of Development. Mississippi's county fairs will compare with the best in the country.
Mississippi's State fair is one of the best of any state."From all over the state come reports of preparations for the best fairs Mississippi ever had. All real Mississippians will enthuse at this. In north Mississippi the fair season will be the best they ever had, we are assured by reports from men like H. L. Mullins, Tupelo, J. A. Thomas, Grenada banker, S. J. Savage, Ackerman's chamber of commerce secretary, and others. The Delta is looking for good fairs, and so are south Mississippi, east Mississippi and other sections of the state."Our own state fair will be a record breaker in every way. It will be a real all-state Mississippi fair. The liberal arts building has been doubled in capacity.
Buildings have been put up for the best dairy and poultry exhibits ever held in the state. People are coming from all parts of the state. Fair managers of other Mississippi counties and communities appreciate the importance of boosting their state fair—and are doing so."There can be no doubt that the coming Mississippi State Fair will be the best we have ever had."RAILROADS GET RELIEF.The railroads have been given a rate increase on carrying the mails. In July, 1925 they filed a petition protesting against the pay allowances that had been effective for three years. The Interstate Commerce Commission decides that the government should pay the railroads more money and that the increase rate should be paid for the years between July, 1925 and the present time.This little boost for the railroads means that Uncle Sam will pay $15,000,000 a year more for mail transportation, and that for the past three years he owes $45,000,000 which must be paid.The decision of the commission may be just and wise.
We are not acquainted with the facts, and presume that the award is as it should be. Interesting, however, is the development that the railroads have a way to get relief from the government when they think they need it."BIG BILL" LOSES GROUND.News from Chicago, as it swings to other sections of the country, indicates that Mayor Thompson, otherwise known as "Big Bill, the Builder," is getting the worst of the fracas in the Windy City.What with being sued and losing the verdict, and with his official family being broken up, and a special grand jury investigation it looks like a clean-up from the top down.The Echo knows very little about the true situation in Chicago and does not attempt to keep up with its politics or its politicians. At the same time, Mayor Thompson, although he accomplished something for the Mississippi flood sufferers, does not look like the man of the day for Chicago.This Week.*Taking Cash from Women*Tunney Retires*Color in Motion Pictures*A Penny Plus 900 Years*BY ARTHUR BRISBANE.

In New York, a nurse, fifty-two years old, about to retire from hard work, kills herself. Her life savings had been lost in a mining swindle.
Real estate sharks, oil sharks, all kinds of sharks profit himself.
They believe, poor things, what they want to believe, that they are to be made rich.Women should not invest in what THEY DO NOT UNDERSTAND.
They should not buy land that they have not seen. And having seen it, they should think it over, examine it several times, consult some skeptical friends, then wait a month, and see it again.Don't believe fairy tales. Ask yourself, "Just how would I, me, myself, not somebody else, actually make a living out of that land? Or if it is to be sold at a profit, how do I know that I could sell it at a profit?
And why doesn't the man keep it and take the huge profit himself?"
If you are leaving money to wife or daughters, fix things so that no other man will be able to get it from them.Gene Tunney, whom certain prize fight "fans" don't like, because he has bugs and they haven't, retires from the ring. That, it is said, will "hurt the game," which is too bad.
No matter what champion they may develop to collect money from fools it can never be proved that he could have beaten Tunney.Tunney, you read, "is going to Paris to study philosophy." An excellent place. The Sorbonne is well equipped.But the important thing is to BE a philosopher, not merely a student of other philosophers.If Tunney can take his $2,000,000 quickly earned out of prize fighting and stay out he will prove that he is a philosopher.Mr. Eastman, king of all kinds of photography, announces perfect moving pictures in colors. With that announcement, pictures reach full development, MOTION, COLOR, SOUND.Now you will see the heroine's of the vampire's rolling eyes, hear the voice that lures men to their doom.
The moving picture stage will show
all that the living stage can show.Talking movies will put a premium on intelligence. A cultivated voice indicates a cultivated mind, and can not be created over night.Roman coins dug up after 2,000 years are worth in silver and gold only what they were worth when buried.This shows the importance of keeping your money earning interest. A silver penny, like the one mentioned in the Bible, put out at interest compounded annually for only 900 years, would amount to $1,270,000,000,000.
That's more money than there is in the world.A great fire raging over the farm lands in the Northwest burns 75,000 acres of wheat and pasture. Homes and ranches are burned with crops, farmers fighting it in vain.Would it be possible to equip a fleet of airplanes with chemical apparatus for extinguishing fire, to deal with a disaster of this kind?Aircraft manufacturers and those that manufacture chemical fire extinguishers might answer that question.Dr. Langsner, marvelous hypnotist of Vienna, does and says things to worry the criminal. By hypnotism
he caused a young criminal, Verno Booher, to confess after fifteen minutes the murder of his mother, sister and two hired men.Dr. Langsner says each has a sixth sense that can be made to receive the thought of another. Thought is something like a broadcasting operation.
He hypnotizes the criminal and easily obtains the truth from him because "his crime is always on his mind."EUGENE FLY VISITS*LAUREL FRIENDSAfter spending a couple of days in Laurel and vicinity in the interest of his candidacy for Congress, Eugene Fly left yesterday for Waynesboro to attend the annual Confederate reunion and picnic.Mr. Fly is highly gratified at the support he is assured of in Jones county and expresses the utmost confidence in his election."I always try to be conservative in election forecasts," said Mr. Fly.
"Therefore I will go no further at this time than to say I am going to win this race, notwithstanding the wild claims of the frightened opposition."One feature of the campaign that is most pleasing to Mr. Fly, as he says, is the fact that his support comes from all classes and factions in Mississippi politics.In a recent issue the Free Lance said of his candidacy:The Voters of the Sixth District will make no mistake by sending Gene Fly to Congress. He will make them a congressman of whom they will feel proud.That Mr. Fly has the confidence and friendship of the laboring man is evidenced by the following quotation from a letter written by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, to a labor leader in the Sixth District:"He (Fly) has always been willing to help labor, and on many occasions has called the attention of labor's representatives to matters of great importance. I hope the wage earners and their friends of the Sixth Mississippi District will give their support to his candidacy.—Laurel

WHAT IS WORTH WHILE?

The difference probably between the man of good judgment and the scatter-brain is that the former emphasizes the important things and lets alone the unimportant, while the latter is equally in earnest about them all.A man has reached a great point in his career when he can see a lot of things make no difference to him.
He has a certain end in view and only appreciates the things that bear on that end. Other matters make no difference.The line that divides the successful man from the unsuccessful is usually the fact that the successful man never loses sight of the goal he has in view, while the unsuccessful man runs about hither and thither like an ant.
He has activity, but it is largely waste motion.Every once in awhile you hear on the street the expression, "What's the big idea?"The big idea seems to stand for the main and informing purpose for which anything is said or done.The big idea is like the perfect design of the building in the mind and the trestle board of the architect. He gives to every man his work and puts every piece of material in its place.I have read some novels that seem to be a mere fritting away of my time, for there was no dominant thought about which they were written.Religious belief in a way, simply means that a man has some big idea about his life, and all of his words and deeds must conform to this plan.Music is only merely a pleasant successions of sounds. It must have unity and form and individuality.

There must be a big idea behind it.

The idea is bigger than the man that has it. A man becomes great only when he allows himself to become absorbed in the idea.Many people suffer because their energies are fritted away. They have no cohesive plan, and everything they do is hit or miss. They never amount to anything because there is no big idea behind them.Search yourself carefully to find your dominating desire, and see that it is such as can merit your giving up all your life to it.Then you will come to success on board a big idea when you never would have attained it otherwise.Little EchoesA. F. of L. reaffirms non-partisan

From the City Across Bay
St. Louis.(By a Staff Correspondent)
CATCHES THIRD TARPON.

Tom Parker, son of former Governor John M. Parker of Louisiana, landed his third tarpon Friday after a 30-minute struggle with the Silver King. This is the third large fish landed by Mr. Parker during the Pass Christian National Tarpon Club and places Mr. Parker in the lead for the number of tarpons landed to date. This latest catch weighed 70 pounds and measured five feet seven inches. Mr. Parker stated that the fish leaped fifteen times before he was able to gaff him.

It is expected that a large number of fishermen will come to the Pass for the annual tarpon which begins August 30 and closes September 7. Since the opening of the tournament many sportsmen from a number of sections have angied for the big game fish and enjoyed the sport.

Another tarpon has been landed in the Pass Christian tarpon holes. John Parker, Jr., son of former Governor John M. Parker of Louisiana, landed his second fish of the tournament Sunday. This fish weighed 90 pounds and measured 5 feet 8 inches. This is the seventh tarpon secured in the tournament.

OLD COPIAH BANK
CLOSES ITS DOORS
AT CRYSTAL SPRINGSFailure of Truck Crop Given
As Cause of Bank's Suspension of Business

Crystal Springs, Miss., Aug. 10.—The Crystal Springs Bank, one of the oldest financial institutions in south Mississippi, headed by Dr. L. M. Damper, well known financier, suspended business here this morning.

The failure of the Copiah county truck crop, entailing great loss on the farmers of the county, and consequently upon those who backed them, was given as the cause of the banking institution to fail to open its doors today.

While no statement has been made of the bank's affairs yet, a representative of the state banking department is in charge checking over the accounts.

While rumors had been current for several days that the bank was in rough waters, there was no run by depositors. Several directors' meetings have been held within the last week, and at a meeting which lasted until midnight last night it was decided to close the bank's doors.

The disastrous year in trucking, the main business of this county, is given as the reason for the bank's failure. Due to late frosts, heavy rains which were topped by a single ten inch rainfall when the tomato crop was beginning to come in and general unseasonable weather, it is estimated that truckers lost from half a million to three quarters of a million dollars. Some of the best farmers in the county have failed in business this year.

COMPLETE SIDEWALKS.

Concrete sidewalks and curbs have recently been installed in Pass Christian on the Beach Boulevard between Henderson avenue and Clarence streets, in front of the properties of J. M. Terrall, Emma Walters, R. S. Eddy and L. T. Rhea. This strip was not completed at the time when the sidewalk and curb work was done in Pass Christian, on account of waiting until the road was made in front of this property. With the completion of this block Pass Christian now has concrete walks and curbing the entire length of the Beach Boulevard.

FLY RESENTS
HALL TACTICSCandidate for Congress from Sixth District Says Opponent
Tries to Create Prejudice Against Him

Hattiesburg, Miss., Aug. 15.—Resenting what he terms the efforts of Judge Hall to create prejudice against him on account of his connection with Senator Pat Harrison and those political contests in which he has been engaged for others, Eugene Fly, candidate for Congress today issued the following statement:

"From the very beginning of this contest, I have stated as positively and sincerely as I know how that I am making the race solely on my own merits and qualifications for the place; that I am not asking for support on the account of any past or present political affiliations or associations.

"In spite of this, I regret to say, one of my opponents, Judge Hall, has repeatedly on the stump and in the newspapers, the stump, on that subtle and peculiar cunning that has marked his entire political career, tried to create prejudice against me on account of my connection with Senator Pat Harrison and those political contests in which I have been engaged for others. The Judge does not do this everywhere, he is shrewd in picking his places—but I want the people to know that I have to contend with and combat in certain sections.

"At a picnic in Covington county the other day, a section where he is trying to ride to office, he was making the first search of the house where Richardson's parents live, finding that the negro had gone. Assisting them were Albert Jones, Frank Quintini, Harry Witter and George Aiavolasapi. When they failed to find the negro they departed.

"They learned that the negro had changed his clothes at home except his shoes and had gotten four rounds on ammunition for his gun which means 24 loads and had left.

"Later Policeman Saucier, Gaston, Telhard and John Beuhler, returned to the house to secure some clothing to give the bloodhounds for a scent and the woman said she had burned the clothes. Mayor Chas. Traub, Sr., and a squad of men went to the house and found some buttons and the shells from the gun in the stove.

"Search From All Directions
Searching parties numbering, it was said, several hundred men and officers searched all of Hancock and Harrison county roads, bridges and passing trains. Officers from Picayune and points north were out on a search. Special officers from New Orleans were placed as a searching and watching party on all roads and railroads entering New Orleans from the east. Autos bearing negroes were stopped and searched Wednesday night.

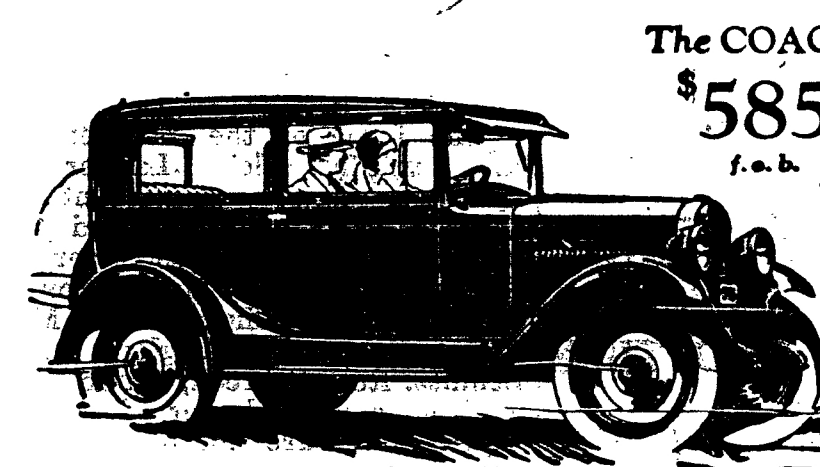

"Policeman Saucier and others went to Pass Christian to investigate a rumor that the negro had spent the night there. Mr. Saucier reported finding a very old negro woman who stated that about 2 o'clock Wednesday morning two negroes had knocked on her door asking to spend the night, but she refused to admit them, and that she opened the door and asked who they were and one replied 'Richardson' from Bay St. Louis." She said she identified him as Silas Richardson. She gave an indication that the negro stayed at another place and this place was searched but with no definite clues of any kind, Mr. Saucier said.

Bob Gant of Crystal Springs arrived with his bloodhounds about daylight Thursday morning and immediately went on trail. The dogs found a place in a marsh near the Brown Vineyard, west of the Bay, where every indication was that the negro sought had slept and where footprints showed. Mr. Gant stated that he believed the negro had left this place two or three hours before the dogs arrived there, which would have meant between two and three o'clock. The trail was lost afterwards—whatever it is centipedes have to carry all the water he tries to tote in every campaign. But such tactics will not win always and he is worn threadbare in his own district. He must realize that he could not possibly be re-elected Judge and this no doubt accounts for his desperate attempt to escape to Congress.

"It is but fair to my other opponents, Judge Dale and Colonel Money to say that, so far as I know, neither of them has misquoted or misrepresented me. I feel sure they would not."

Passenger Agent Shows
Heavy Traffic

Think of 3418 railroad tickets sold to the Mississippi Coast from Eastern territory from October 1927 to March 1928. This is information compiled by J. K. Ridgely, general passenger agent of the L. & N. and forwarded to I. V. Colly, Biloxi agent. These figures show the heavy traffic from the East to Coast points during the winter season, and are a good indication of the tourist business on the Coast last winter.

They were sold by connected lines, the total being divided as follows: 1780 Pennsylvania; 472 by the Southern Railway; 95 by the Baltimore & Ohio; 233 by the Big Four; 137 by the Michigan Central; 121 by the New York Central.

This does not include round-trip tickets to New Orleans and points West with stop overs allowed on the Mississippi Coast and indications are that the approaching winter likewise will see active travel to the Coast which, with the completion of the various hotels, is well able to accommodate an increased number of visitors.

HOTEL PLANS EXTENSION.

The Battle House, famous Mobile hostelry, after a refinancing of the hotel company to provide $1,000,000 additional capital, will spend $750,000 for construction of two additional floors containing 120 rooms, it was announced there Saturday.

MAY REORGANIZE BANK.

Crystal Springs, Miss., Aug. 10.—Plans for the organization of a new bank in place of the Crystal Springs Bank, which failed to open its doors today, are under way with a state bank department representative in charge of the defunct bank's affairs.

Gun Identified

It was learned that the gun Richardson did the shooting with was a U. S. 45 special, army regulation gun, that had belonged to Mrs. D. H. Boyle of the Tulane Hotel, mother of Robert L. Genin. Mrs. Boyle had given the gun to the negro to clean some four months ago and he had not returned it to her. She kept the gun as a protection, it was said.

Guarded in New Orleans

Word reached the Bay late Tuesday that the common law wife of Silas Richardson was being guarded by police and would be so guarded until she was apprehended. It is understood that this woman in New Orleans whom Richardson had not seen for four months had taken up with a negro by the name of Henry Johnson in the city, and it is believed that Richardson armed himself, stole the automobile with the intention of going to New Orleans "to get" Johnson or the woman, but was interrupted by his arrest and consequent shooting and escape.

Negro Has Bad Record

Richardson has a record as a "bad" negro, having done time in both Alabama and Mississippi penitentiaries. He was sent up from Hancock county during Sheriff Jos. Bontemps' term of office. He was classed by former employees as a "sassy" negro.

The Chambered Nautilus.

The nautilus is a small shellfish something like an enlarged snail, which, according to seamen's tradition, is able to voyage upon the surface of the water, putting up a part of its body as a kind of sail. The basis of this splendid poem by Oliver Wendell Holmes, is the fact that the nautilus each year adds to the spiral shell in which it lives a new and larger chamber, in order to make room for its increased growth. This poem is reprinted here as it is considered one of the most beautiful expressions of the need of the human soul to grow, through labor, from year to year.

This is the ship of pearl, which, poets feign,
Sailed the unshadowed main,—
The venturous bark that flings
On the sweet summer wind its purpled wings
In gulfs enchanted, where the Siren sings,
And coral reefs lie bare,
Where the cold sea-maids rise to sun
Their streaming hair.

Its webs of living gauze no more unfurl;
Wrecked is the ship of pearl!
And every chambered cell,
Where its dim dreaming life was wont
To dwell,
As the frail tenant shaped his growing
ing shell.

Before thee lies revealed,
Its iris'd ceiling rent, its sunless
crypt unsealed!

Year after year beheld the silent toil
That spread his lustrous coil;
Still, as the spiral grew,
He left the past year's dwelling for the new,
Stole with soft step its shining archway through,
Built up its idle door,
Stretched in his last-found home, and knew the old no more.

Thanks for the heavenly message brought by thee,
Child of the wandering sea,
Cast from her lap, thy foehn!
From the dead lips a clearer note is born
Than ever Triton blew from wreathed horn!

While on mine ear it rings,
Through the deep caves of thought I hear a voice that sings:—

Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low-vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea!

—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Waiting List Filled.

George McCaskey, business manager of Gulf Park College, the popular Coast educational institution for girls, announces that the waiting list for students for the college is filled. This is the fourth season that a waiting list has been maintained by the college and it is filled earlier this year than in any previous year, he said.

Further all possible students for the senior class who can be recommended by the college are being sought. "We anticipate a bigger and better college and school this year than ever before," he said.

CROWDED HOUSE SEES MALLINI KNOCK OUT JIM RIVERS IN 2ND.

Peterson and Doubourg Fight Draw, Six Rounds—Paul Favre Wins Over Cobb—Marullo and Littleton Introduced

The American Legion staged another of its clean-cut boxing exhibitions Wednesday night at their new arena in Sycamore street, previously scheduled for Tuesday night, the bouts were postponed to Wednesday on account of threatening weather.

Mallini Scores K. O.

In the main bout, scheduled for 10 rounds, Buster Mallini of Kilm and New Orleans, knocked out Jimmie Rivers, of New Orleans, a protégé of "Dad" Marullo, in the second round. In the first round a hard left to the stomach sent Rivers to the canvas. Being rather slow in getting up after the count of nine, referee Manieri raised Mallini's hand, giving him a K. O. victory. Rivers and his seconds protested saying he was hit out whereupon Mallini, showing his sportsmanship, agreed to continue the fight and knocked Rivers down again for the count of nine, the bell saving him. In the second round, before the fans could see what was happening, Mallini again sent Rivers to the floor, this time for the final count. Mallini weighed 157, Rivers 144.

Semi-Final Best Scrap

The six-round semi-windup between "Little Boy" Peterson of Kilm and Russell Doubourg of New Orleans was the best scrap of the evening.

In the first round which was a series of continuous clinches, Peterson cut open both of Doubourg's eyes, while Doubourg cut a deep gash over Peterson's right eye. For a time during this round it seemed as if Doubourg would score easily over "Pete," but the lad from Kilm had shown that he could toe the scratch with his opponent and when the second round started Doubourg had showed up considerably. From then on to the end it was a give and take affair, with neither getting the best of the other. When referee Manieri called the fight a draw he was cheered by the crowd, as it was a very good decision.

This is the kind of fight the fans don't mind paying to see. Let's have more fighters of the Peterson and Doubourg type and boxing sure to take on a boom here.

In the four-rounder between Paul Favre and Irish Cobb, Paul was given the decision. Cobb was a game little scrapper, but Paul had a lot of reach on Cobb, and did the leading all through.

This was another good decision on the part of referee Russell Manieri. Battling Monko was in action in the opener, meeting the Zulu Kid. The "Kid" was too much for Monko, who took the count in the third round after he had already been on the canvas about twenty times.

Famous Scrapper Present-Introduced
Young "Tony" Marullo, of New Orleans, who fights Tommy Loughran for the Light-Heavyweight championship of the world sometime in the next two months, and who already has fought seven champions was introduced along with "Dad" Marullo, his trainer-manager.

"Happy" Littleton, once famous fighter, now retired, was also present and introduced.

TWO GULFPORT GIRLS SWIM BAY MONDAY IN RECORD TIME

Misses Rebecca and Sophie Rollins Successfully Conquer Two Miles Water

Misses Rebecca and Sophie Rollins of Gulfport, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rollins of Second street, swam the Bay of St. Louis from the Bay side to Henderson Point side Monday morning making the two-mile swim in spite of choppy sea and north wind. Miss Rebecca made the swim in 1 hour and 30 minutes and Miss Sophie made the swim in 1 hour and 45 minutes.

These young ladies motored to the Bay from Gulfport being ready to enter the waters at 6 o'clock from the old ferry wharf on the Bay shore. A skiff accompanied each of the swimmers.

In the boat following Miss Rebecca was young Horatio Weston of Logtown and in the boat following Miss Sophie were her mother, Mrs. Rollins, and brother Hutson Rollins.

Miss Rebecca a graduate of the Gulfport high school, has completed

IMPROVEMENTS IN TELEPHONE OFFICE BEING COMPLETED

Local Exchange Shows Fine Changes During Summer Expenditure of $5,000

With the painting of the Bay St. Louis telephone office which is now being done, the last of the improvements in the office will be completed. During this present summer approximately $5,000 has been spent by the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company in the Bay St. Louis office, which occupies the second floor of the Echo building on North Front street.

The improvements in the office represents the installation of a new section of switch board, the moving of the switch board from one room to another, the moving of the manager's office, and a general rearrangement of the office to a more convenient position and now with the repainting of the office a very pleasant as well as an effective office is found which Manager J. J. Hood is justly proud of and over which he is to be congratulated.

Office Force

The force of the local exchange includes Miss Alcide Ladner, chief operator, and Miss Antoinette Schultz, night operator and these two operators serve as supervisors. Operators follow: Mrs. Florence Ansley, Misses Lillian Ladner, Marius and Gwendolyn Ziegler, Agnes Schultz, Ruth Schreck, Annie Adams, Josie Kimmel and Mercedes Mitton. These ladies are not only kind and considerate in their dealings with the public over the phone but quite efficient as operators and are an asset to an ever growing and increasingly busy office.

Not only is the office of the local exchange now in most attractive form but other pieces of improvement have been made by the company including the issuance of new directories, and a thorough rehauing of wires in the Bay-Waveland-Lakeshore district which is served by the local office.

her freshman year at Sophie Newcomb College and will be a member of the sophomore class this fall. Miss Sophie will be a member of the Gulfport high school senior class this fall.

While several boys have swam the Bay of St. Louis as far as can be determined these are the two first Coast girls to have accomplished this feat. Their time is considered quite fine and they are to be congratulated upon their success in conquering the waters.

STATE HAS FINE PUBLICATION IN "THE MISSISSIPPI BUILDER"

Ten Thousand Copies Accompanied The "Know Mississippi Better Train"

Mississippians throughout the state who appreciate the importance of constructive publicity will receive with great applause the "Know Mississippi Better Issue" of The Mississippi Builder, just off the press.

When it turns through the 100 pages of striking editorial and advertising matter that sets forth the many resources of "The State of Opportunities," it is greatly gratifying to know that ten thousand copies of this number will be distributed, a special representative of the publication going on the state train to see that this extraordinary publication is given out to men and women of the West, Midwest and Northwest as the "Know Mississippi Better Train" passes through those sections this month. The publication is attractively illustrated throughout, with a most striking front cover depicting the products, resources and recreational centers of Mississippi.

To Mississippians who have been studying the efforts of men behind the Mississippi Builder, it has been evident that they were building for a constructive service to the state. The August number is by all odds the finest, most elaborate publication of this kind ever printed in Mississippi.

L. O. Crosby, State Exponent. The page showing the table of contents states that the magazine is published by L. O. Crosby and associates. Mr. Crosby, who is president of the Mississippi State Board of Development, has been the state's leading exponent for nationwide advertising for Mississippi.

Many Feature Articles

The current number features articles and statements in which many leading men of the nation give the highest praise to Mississippi, among them Herbert Hoover, former secretary of commerce; L. A. Downs, president of the Illinois Central; Richard H. Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturers Record; Roger Babson, world renowned economist; Dr. Jas. S. Thomas, University of Alabama, famous southern economist; Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois; Dr. Elwood Mead, commissioner of reclamation, U. S. Department of the Interior; John H. Kraft, vice-president of the Kraft-Phenix Cheese Manufacturing Company; Walter Page, vice-president of the Carnation Milk Company, Oconomowoc, Wis., and many others.

Contributors Are Well Known.

Among leading Mississippians contributing to the issue are J. S. Love, state superintendent of banks; W. F. Bond, state superintendent of education;

J. C. Holton, commissioner of agriculture; Alf H. Stone, director of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce; L. J. Folse, general manager of the Mississippi State Board of Development; John W. Gearty, famous marketing expert at Picayune; D. Priscilla Edgerton, supervisor of forestry education, and many others.

Much credit for the splendid issue now just off the press is given by officials of the Builder to Hamilton Dutcher, who recently became business manager of the publication. Mr. Dutcher comes to the Builder with a splendid record of service in other sections of the South.

Many Towns Are Represented

A particularly interesting feature of the magazine is the large number of towns, counties and communities in the state represented in the community publicity and advertising section of the magazine. Among these are the McComb City Chamber of Commerce; Brookhaven Chamber of Commerce; Greenwood Chamber of Commerce; City of Forest; City of Starkville; Osyka Commercial Club; Clarksdale Chamber of Commerce; and many others. Jackson has a very attractive page of community publicity entitled "Jackson—A City of Inspired Growth."

Bay St. Louis Represented

Greenwood has a four-page publicity section. Gulfport a four-page section; McComb City a three-page section, and Bay St. Louis and Hancock county a handsome two-page section. City of Bay St. Louis and Waveland represented with a poem by J. N. Wisner, director of public relations, was good.

Craddock Goins, editor of the Mississippi Builder, is publicity director for the Mississippi State Board of Development.

Magazine Credit to State.

The magazine is a distinct credit to the state. Mississippians have every reason to feel proud of this publication. It is well printed, makes a striking appearance and tells the story of the state more completely and more interestingly than any similar publication we have ever seen.

The editorial matter covers the state's growth and resources in agriculture, industry, forestry, education, public health, banking, development work, truck farming, fruit growing, dairying, etc. Every section of the state is strikingly portrayed.

Save Your Profits

The difference in what you earn and your necessary expenditures is the profit on your endeavors. It makes no difference whether your income is in the form of salary, commissions or returns from your own business, the real profit on your personal industry, shrewdness and thrift is the amount left over after you have paid your business expenses plus your living expenses.

Expenses of doing business are often more or less fixed by conditions beyond your control. Your personal expenses, however, and therefore the amount you can lay away out of your income depends in large measure on yourself. THRIFT after all is only another name for WILL POWER.

Where are your last year's profits? Are they still intact or have you fritted most of them away to satisfy passing whims? Many people need a method whereby they can strengthen their will to save. Here is the best one yet devised!

COMMENT ON SPORTS

It is with a funny feeling these days that one looks at the American League standing and watches the race between the Yankees and the Athletics. Whereas, most writers admitted that the pennant race was over and awarded the honors exclusively to the minions of Miller Huggins, the young players of the Athletics, suddenly thrown into the breach by Connie Mack, did not seem to understand that by all rules of the game the fight was over. They hustled and then hustled some more, with the result that the pennant fever begins to rage in the City of Brotherly Love and the public is gradually getting used to the idea that, maybe, after all, Messrs. Ruth and Co. are not the only team in the League.

Some critics have wondered how Connie Mack expected to build up a winning combination as long as he shifted players with such irregular regularity. Still, in July, he seemed to find the combination. Maybe, the astute manager was only trying them out. Maybe, again, he had given up the 1928 engagement and was looking to 1929 hoping in the closing days of the season to build a pennant winning aggregation for next year through proper handling of his youngsters.

The United States has had some surprises at the Olympic games, and some of them in the track and field events. This has caused some comment along the line that American athletes are mostly college men, whereas in most of the European countries many of them are working boys. The query arises, what happens to the bright performers of high school days, who never go to college. The answer is, they go to work, without much ado about athletics.

One reason is that they learn baseball, football and basketball at high school and that's all in the main. After they leave school, they have not, as a rule, grounds for such contests. A football field, if one is available for working boys, will allow say forty men to participate. A basketball court, as one knows, will exercise less men. Now, what is the matter?

Eernie Hjertberg, veteran trainer, suggests that neighborhood clubs should be organized for track and field activities. His argument is very good.

How much would all this cost? Not much. The local group don't have to start with a marble club house and a private athletic field. Prizes for competition might be nominal. I think giving certificates would be a good scheme. There are plenty of athletic fields around the city, handy to all sections. No boy would have to go as far to an athletic field these days as all of us had to go in the old days.

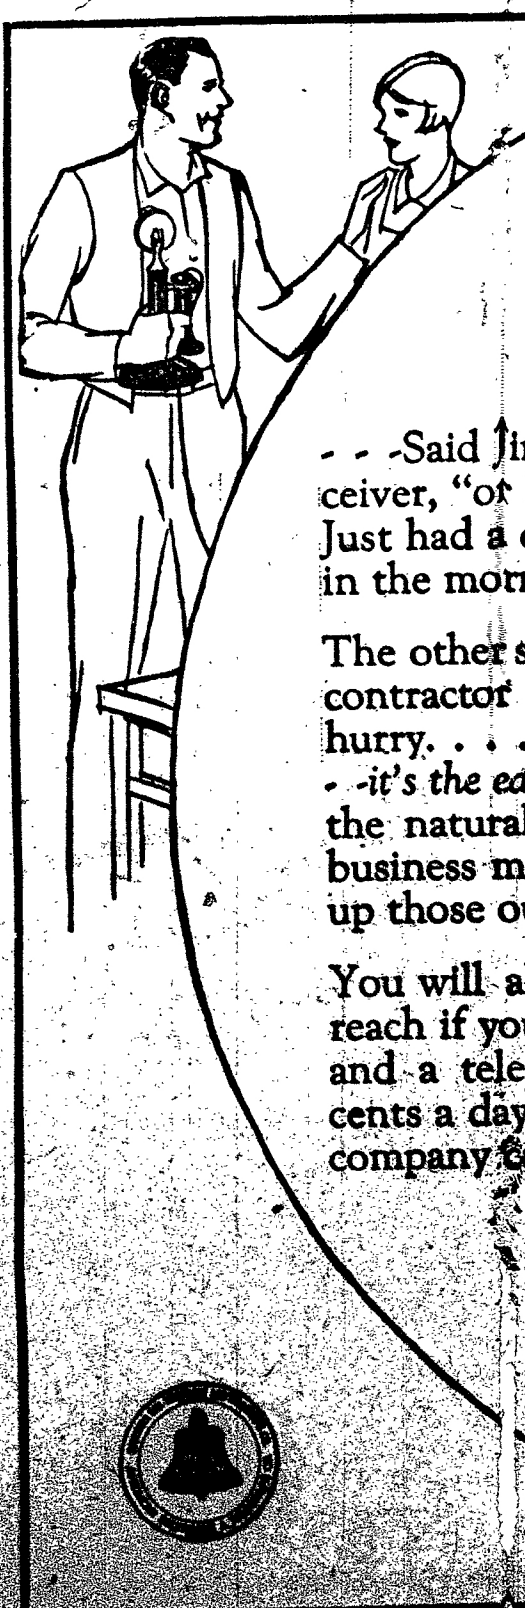

"Well, who has this boost for track athletics?" I'll tell you why. You can practice or compete in this sport in almost any weather, any season and any time of the day. Individual equipment costs practically nothing—just a running suit and a pair of shoes. You can play about four games of baseball in the Yankee Stadium in a day, which would cost twenty-two players or just a few more into action. In the same time and on the same track you could get more than a thousand boys taking part in a track and field meet. How many golfers can get on a golf course? How many track athletes could be accommodated by the same extent of land?

"All this is a big point in favor of track athletics over other sports for the growing boy or the young man."

BAY ST. LOUIS TEAM WILL PLAY INDEPENDENTS HERE

Coast Baseball Club Which Ranks Well as Strong Players Meet Local Men Here

Carey Allen, of Gulfport, who managed the Gulf Coast Independents during the first part of the season, announced that the club would meet the Bay St. Louis team next Sunday afternoon at the Bay. Allen disbanded the independent club when he took over the reins of the Cuevas Radios of the Gulfport city league at the beginning of the second half race but resigned as the skipper of the club at the amateur directors' meeting last Wednesday night. It is probable that Allen will have nearly the same lineup that was with the Independents during the first part of the season when they invaded Bay St. Louis Sunday afternoon.

The semi-pro club made a good showing before it was disbanded and played such strongholds as Baton Rouge, Slidell and several other strong teams in Mississippi and Louisiana.

The Gulf Coast club was made up of some of the best prospects that the Coast could muster and had one of the best amateur pitchers in this section on the staff in Fred Steinwinder.

Mississippi Brevities

GREAT GAPE.— Marshal D. M. Miles, Wiggins, will henceforth be more careful when he yawns. Drowsy, Marshal Miles yawned so heartily that he dislocated his jaw, was unable to close his mouth until a physician set the bone.

CONVENTION.— To negro Baptist convention Eugene Brewer brought last week bottles of moonshine. Delighted, his Baptist brethren drank, became boisterous. Deputy L. C. Hodges protested, whereupon drunk Eugene pulled out a pistol, killed Hodges, wounded a terrified Baptist sister who stood nearby.

SCOUT MEAL.— One hundred and two Boy Scouts went to Camp Dantzler near Hattiesburg last week. Hungry they ate for each meal, thirteen hundred biscuits, fifteen dozen eggs, three gallons of molasses, an abundance of butter and bacon.

SLIDE SLIPS.— In Hattiesburg last week small boys and girls continued to wear out their pants and dresses as usual on shiny slide boards. Near one slide board stood 9-year-old Mary Ruth Cook. Suddenly the board fell, shattered Mary's shoulder and leg.

IN STYLE.— The more "pant burglars" Laurel officers catch the more pants are buried. With the original Jones county trousers thief in jail police expected some peace. But pants-burgling has become a fad, is keeping care-worn business men awake with worry.

BLACK FOOT.— Dr. R. F. Payne found a Ford in a water-filled ditch. From the water he pulled the foot, found that a negro woman, apparently drowned, of longed, life was restored. How long the negro had been under water nobody knows.

BABY BENSON.— Like all other babies, Baby Benson of Webb sticks his rattle, feet, everything else he can, into his mouth. Last week he found two open safety pins, stuck them in, swallowed them. Mamma doctors took them out.

WANTS REUNION.— The fast dwindling army of the Confederacy has been entertained by every southern state save Mississippi. Anxious to have these gallant gray-uniformed veterans her guests before too late, Mississippi hopes to be host at their 40th annual reunion in 1930.

WATER WHEELS.— Weighty water wheels used to groan and streak on Pike county creeks. For years they have been idle. Last week the Price Brothers repaired one such wheel, hooked it to an electric generator, are now supplying current to themselves and five neighbors.

TAKES CAR, DAUGHTER.— R. A. Patrick boarded with Mrs. Adna Lindall, Gulfport. Last week he stole Mrs. Lindall's car, also her daughter. Angry, Mrs. Lindall notified police, recovered her car, found Patrick to be her son-in-law.

UNFORTUNATE FORD.— The Cohens and their Ford were knocked half a Brookhaven block by a negro in an Oakland last week. All except the Ford escaped injury. Its rear smashed beyond recognition, Lady Lizzie had only her motor and front wheels left shapely.

PUSHED INTO POST.— Only person injured in a Hattiesburg wreck which took two cars and five persons figured was an innocent bystander. A truck rammed the rear of a car, smashed it, knocked it against the bystander, pinned him to a post.

FOUL THIEF.— Seeking chickens, Alonzo Carr quietly opened the door of a coop in Jackson. Just as he reached in for a fowl he felt a load of buckshot tear through his leg, heard a deafening boom. George Jones, owner of the coop, admitted setting a shot gun trap, was not arrested.

DARLING BEAST.— Beaten out of her home, 14-year-old Pearl Cameron hid in the fields near Hattiesburg during daylight and at night walked as far as she could toward she didn't know where. Picked up, Pearl was taken to the State Charity Hospital, is rapidly recovering health.

CAPITAL COMES TO MISSISSIPPI.

Charters Filed During July Represents Outside Money

Totaling $2,670,000

Jackson, Miss., August 13.—Domestic charters recorded with Secretary of State Walker Wood for July amounted to approximately $1,036,500, while foreign capital authorized to do business in Mississippi during the same month was $2,670,000. Figures released here by the secretary showed.

"There was practically no check-up during the month of July in the activities of organized capital in Mississippi, or with that which comes from outside sources and qualified to do business in the Magnolia state," Secretary Wood said.

"The receipt of charters for record in my department for July was far ahead of the same month last year, and indications point to a banner year for 1928, with the volume of corporate activities exceeding last year," the secretary stated.

MACCABEES WILL PLAY "ALL-STARS" ON LOCAL DIAMOND SUN.

No Game Last Sunday Account Picayune Team Not Appearing for Game

The Maccabees will endeavor to make up for the failure of a game last Sunday when Picayune failed to put in their appearance for a game scheduled on the local diamond, by giving the fans a treat to a real game this Sunday afternoon when they cross bats with the Gulf Coast All-Stars. This team is the pick of the Gulf Coast, formerly the Long Beach Independents, who featured in a game at Baton Rouge, also defeated the Bogalusa All-Stars, featuring Freddie Steinwinder in the box who is an ace twirler of the Biloxi high school. The Bees have battled against this game before. Of course the Bees do not know who will oppose them Sunday, most likely it will be some good ball tosser as Allen of the All-Stars always has some good pitchers on hand; in fact all of his players are good ball players and they have been playing in the Gulfport City league and recently went to playing independent ball. The Maccabees are prepared for a hard game and are confident of victory. It will be worth while coming out to see this game.

Egloff of Collier will do the twirling with Choina on the receiving end. The whole Maccabee team is in good playing shape and rearing to play ball. So be a good sport and attend the game Sunday. You will be well satisfied. Game starts at 2:45 P. M.

LARGE ENROLLMENT IN FARM CLASSES IN STATE THIS YEAR

Over Five Thousand Men and Boys Secure Vocational Training

There were 5,361 farmers and boys enrolled in vocational agricultural training classes during the period ending July 1, 1927, and July 1, 1928, it was shown in the annual report of E. J. Hubbard, director of vocational agriculture and education in Mississippi.

These enrollments represented those receiving instruction in agriculture alone, it was said, and does not include the number taking home economics and trades and industries. All day pupils led the list with an enrollment of 2,977, with evening classes second with 1,983. Day unit classification showed a roll of 336, and part-time only 65 students.

Evening classes were attended largely by adult farmers, and the size of those taking advantage of the night schools of instruction showed a marked increase among the farmers in the work.

"This sort of work in the department—evening, all day, part-time and day-unit—was started only four years ago," Mr. Hubbard said, "and since that time it has grown in leaps and bounds."

ALL the world swims in Jantzen

© Jantzen

THROUGHOUT North and South America and at the pools and shores of other lands, Jantzen are notably popular with folks who swim.

Indeed, "swimming's the thing" these days almost everywhere. And it's so much easier to swim in a Jantzen . . . warm, snug, flexible. You'll marvel at the matchless . . . wrinkleless fit.

Jantzen material, consisting entirely of long-fibred wool, is tightly knitted by a process called Jantzen-stitch. It is extremely elastic.

And Jantzen's system of sizing by weight assures you the right size to start with. We have all the popular colors and styles in every size. And being dyed-in-the-wool, they're color-fast.

Mirrors of Mississippi

By Edgar S. Wilson

Jackson, Miss., August 15.—Some people continue to confuse the duties of county executive committees with the duties of county election commissioners. They are things apart. County election commissioners are named by the State Board of Election Commissioners, composed of the governor, the secretary of state, and the attorney-general. They must be qualified electors and freeholders in their respective counties. It is their duty to receive the poll books of their respective counties, the law specifically specifying their duties. The county election commissioners name the judges, clerks and bailiffs holding regular elections at which beat, county, legislative, and state officials, as well as congressmen and senators who have been previously nominated in primary elections, are elected.

County executive committees are named by the delegates to county conventions sent there from the various voting precincts of the county. County executive committees name the judges, clerks and bailiffs who hold primary elections. election commissioners of the eighty-two counties will be named soon by the State Board of Election Commissioners, and it is understood that applicants are furnishing proof with their applications that they are qualified electors and are freeholders.

Those Democratic candidates for Congress who have been declared the nominees and those who will be nominated in the primary election to be held August 21, will have no opposition at the congressional election which takes place November 6, 1928, at the same time that the people will vote for president, the senatorial nominee and the nominee for supreme court judge in the southern district. Judge W. D. Anderson, because of his preeminent ability, had no opposition in the northern district for supreme court judge, and was declared the nominee by the State Democratic Executive Committee.

It may be of interest to note in this connection that the last Republican Congressman from Mississippi was Elza Jeffords of Mayersville, Issaquena county, who served in Congress from March 4, 1883, to March 3, 1885. Jeffords was a native of Ohio and served in the federal army. He was judge of the court of High Errors and Appeals in Mississippi in 1868-1869. He defeated another Republican named Clarke of Greenville, who had been district attorney. Jeffords made no nomination in that district, made no nomination in that district, and largely supported Jeffords over Clarke. Jeffords was succeeded in Congress by the lamented T. C. Catchings, who resigned the office of attorney general to accept the Democratic nomination.

General James R. Chalmers, when unseated by John R. Lynch, the negro, in the third district, removed to Sardis, Paola county, and became an independent candidate for Congress in the second district in opposition to Van H. Manning of Holly Springs, the Democratic nominee. Chalmers was seated after a contest by a Democratic House, with Carlisle as speaker. He was defeated two years thereafter as an independent by John Bright Morgan, Democrat, of Hernando. Chalmers was the only independent congressman from Mississippi.

In September, 1889, Chalmers was nominated for governor by a Repu-lican convention composed of negroes and whites, pressed over by Blanche K. Bruce, former United States Senator, in the hall of the House of Representatives of the old capitol. He made a vicious speech arraigning the Democracy. On the ticket with Chalmers for lieutenant-governor was James D. Lynch, of West Point, the author of "Kemper County Vindication," written in answer to "The Chisolm Massacre," by a carpetbagger named J. M. Wells. Lynch was a man of letters. In competition with the entire country, his poem entitled "Columbia Saluting the Nation" was unanimously adopted and read at the Chicago Exposition in 1893. Later it was unanimously adopted by the National Editorial Association as the press poem of America. On the ticket with Lynch and Chalmers were negroes and Republicans. The ticket went to pieces before the November election, and the Democratic ticket, headed by the majestic Stone, had no opposition.

More roads and better roads seem to be demanded by press and people throughout the entire commonwealth. Gravel for truck highways has proven to be a costly makeshift. The original cost of concrete or other indestructible roads is practically the only cost of such roads as the maintenance of the same is almost negligible.

Largest Cheese Plant In World Formally Opened

Columbus, Miss., Aug. 10.—The largest exclusive American cheese factory in the world this afternoon held its formal opening. Hundreds of visitors were present during the day, all of whom were shown over the big plant and saw the machinery in operation, many for the first time.

The plant has been in operation for nearly a month, having opened on July 12. Several milk routes are now being used daily and the plant is receiving more milk now than when it opened.

Visitors were here from far points, viewing the various stages of cheese making. Farmers "duded" up for the occasion, mingled with bankers and merchants.

The plant was erected at a cost of $60,000 and is even better than Wisconsin's best plants, according to experts from that state. It is owned and operated by A. H. Barber and company.

OUR LADY OF GULF CHURCH FAIR IS GREAT SUCCESS

Annual Festival for Our Lady of the Gulf Church Nets Approximately $1,400

The largest and most successful festival or fair ever held in Bay St. Louis as a benefit for Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic church was that given Saturday and Sunday on the grounds of St. Stanislaus College. Large crowds of people from the Bay and all sections of the Coast patronized the festival, enjoying particularly pleasant entertainment.

The booths were beautifully decorated with flags and bunting and various colors with many lights made of the grounds a veritable fiesta park ready for the entertainment to fall, with each booth a bazaar in itself. A platform was erected and here a general entertainment was given including monologues and readings by Bernard Shields; dancing by the pupils of Miss Dorothy Prater; vocal numbers by Ben Hille.
